

Let Freedom Ring Annual Festival • Mt. Morris, IL 61054

Greetings!

The Let Freedom Ring Committee thanks you for your continuing support and depends on you, our community; friends, families and businesses for both your generous financial donations and volunteered time. Let Freedom Ring is an all-volunteer organization, and needs your support and help to continue this incredible tradition!

The 2022 celebration begins the evening of June 29th on the Band Shell with the Let Freedom Ring Queen and King coronation and the Little Miss and Mister contest.

July 1st – July 4th, you will find many family friendly activities including: Live Music, Car and Tractor Show, Craft Vendors, Food Vendors, Old Sandstone Gallery Art Show, Watermelon Eating Contest, Patriotic Program, Parade, Fireworks and so much more.

July 4th kicks off your choice of breakfast at the Airport or the Fire Station, where your donations help support our local services. At 10:00 am there will be a church service at the bandshell, and at 12:00 pm, the annual Patriotic Program and Bell Ringing prior to the Grand Parade at 2:00pm. Fireworks begin at dusk behind DLR Jr. High.
